

Job Club at the City Business Library Starting January 2014

Are you unemployed and looking for work?
Do you live in London?
If so, the City Business Library is running a
Job Club that may interest you...

- CVs
- Interview skills
- Searching for potential employers
- Employability

“ A good way to feel validated and to reinforce my skills. ”

“ I really enjoyed the Job Club – it gave me some great tools for my job search ”

I am in employment now, so all the tips that I got from the programme were great! ”

Starting in January 2014.

Five tailored sessions (2.5 hours per session)
to help you in your search for work.

Advice from specialists in their field.

FREE for you to attend (this is a Government funded programme).
